

Highlights and Tid Bits

Released Jump! CD, produced by Atlantic Records singer/songwriter Marty Atkinson, which includes songs ranging from Dance rave (Jump!) to Power Pop (Living Room, Kinda Like Forever, and In a Whisper) to Blue Eyed Soul (Slow Burn), a Manhattan Transfer influenced song, Chasin' Love; and Nightlights, currently on the desk for review at DreamWorks motion pictures. CD release concert as opener for local jazz-rock-fusion band, Summit 2V1.

Along with wife Janet, created start-up indie record label, Angel Blossom Records, to assist local fledgling singer/songwriters in getting an EP CD recorded and help garner better gigs and radio airplay.

Released The Longest Time CD, produced by SpeakLo Media producer Thom E Butler, with North Bay Area maestros of SoloRio – local favorite Americana/Roots Music band – recorded (mostly) live at Prairie Sun Studios in Cotati. CD includes magnum opus Backwards Land, chronicling the Civil Rights movement, featuring songstress Mickala Cheadle and the Beth Eden Baptist Celestial Singers gospel choir. CD release concert with San Francisco favorite singer/songwriter Donovan Plant, and coastside favorites, The Atkinson Kincheloe Band.

Appeared on Blues With (Bill) Bowker on KRSH Santa Rosa radio to promote both new album The Longest Time, the song Backwards Land, and a live show at Redwood Café. Appeared on KPCA – community-access radio program in Petaluma, also to promote new album and show at Redwood Café.

Released For the Record, an 18-song compilation CD album that includes the 'Best Of' Michael Vincent, and three 'new' songs – two instrumentals that appear in documentary film about Sonoma County artist Roberta Ahrens (Amber Shades and Farther On); a new song, celebrating the magical life that is life in California, called California; and rerecorded Just Cause of the Hunted, originally from Michael's first album, Lines and Wonders, and updated to address the current crisis of families being separated at the Border. CD release concert coming soon...
